

Asheville Puppetry

www.ashevillepuppetry.org

The mission and purpose of the Asheville Puppetry Alliance (APA) is to bring together the public, the puppets and the performers.

PUBLIC PERFORMANCES

Adults $8.00 / Children & Seniors $5.00
828-257-4530 or www.dwtheatre.com

SCHOOL GROUP PERFORMANCES

10:00 & 12:00 am Tickets: $5.00
828-257-4544 ext 307

The second school show scheduled at 12:00 noon will be added if the 10:00 am show fills.

All shows reflect the North Carolina Standard Course of Study and come with study guides. We offer a short puppet demonstration and question-and-answer session after each production.

The Diana Wortham Theatre is located at Pack Place in downtown Asheville. It is wheelchair accessible and equipped with devices for the hearing impaired.

The
Asheville Puppetry
Alliance

2009/2010 Young Audience Series

at the
Diana Wortham Theatre

The Stork Man is funded in part by a grant from the Southern Arts Federation in partnership with the National Endowment for the Arts.

www.ashevillepuppetry.org

NONPROFIT ORGANIZATION
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
ASHEVILLE, N.C.
PERMIT #422

The Asheville Puppetry Alliance 2009/10

el hombre cigüena (The Stork Man)

SPECIAL INTERNATIONAL SHOW!

Animal rod puppets interact with live actors as we experience a charming journey as one man imagines he is a Stork fishing in a pond.

Los Tiritieros de Binéfar from Spain are internationally known and have performed for over 30 years in streets, plazas, theaters, tents, and pavilions throughout the world.

PUBLIC - Sunday, July 12 - 2:00 pm.

The Rainbow Bridge and Other Tales

PUBLIC – Saturday, November 28 – 11 am

SCHOOLS – Tuesday, December 1 - 10 am

This stunning shadow puppet production brings three folktales to life - "The Rainbow Bridge" (Crumash Indians), "El Coqui" (Puerto Rico) and "The Three Billy Goats Guff" (Nordic origin).

Hobey Ford's Golden Rod Puppets

Is known for mastery of puppetry performance and craft and is the recipient of puppetry's highest honor, the UNIMA citation of Excellence.

Aunt Nelly's Mountain Home

SCHOOLS – Friday, March 26 – 10 am

PUBLIC – Saturday March 27 – 11 am

Aunt Nelly's porch is the best place to learn about life on the Blue Ridge. Why don't you tall come on up and join Nelly and her friends!

Mountain Marionettes is a full time professional puppet company performing with short strung, trick marionettes in a Cabaret style variety show.

For more information: www.ashevillepuppetry.org